

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

A Proclamation

His Excellency Governor Deval L. Patrick

Whereas The Town of North Brookfield was first settled 1664 and incorporated on February 28, 1812; and

Whereas The people of the Town of North Brookfield, from early Colonial times and throughout her long history, have contributed immeasurably to the development of our Commonwealth and exemplified the finest of its ideals and traditions; and

Whereas Many of its sons and daughters have served and lost their lives in the wards of our country and many others have distinguished themselves in the field of public service in the Town, the Commonwealth and the Nation; and

Whereas On this day, the Town of North Brookfield celebrates its 200th anniversary,

Now, Therefore, I, Deval L. Patrick, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim February 28th, 2012, to be

NORTH BROOKFIELD DAY

And urge all the citizens of the Commonwealth to take cognizance of this event and participate fittingly in its observance.

Given at the Executive Chamber in Boston, this twenty-second day of February, in the year two thousand and twelve, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and thirty-fifth.

By His Excellency

DEVAL L. PATRICK
GOVERNOR OF THE COMMONWEALTH

WILLIAM FRANCIS GALVIN
SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH

God Save the Commonwealth of Massachusetts
